El diccionario del viajero

The words you need from the airport to the beach, with Spain 🇪🇸 and Argentina 🇦🇷 vocabulary

PONCHO
SPANISH

¡HOLA, VIAJERO!

Every trip is a chance to use Spanish for real: reading a sign, buying a ticket, asking a local where the best beach is.

This dictionary collects more than 80 travel words and expressions, each with a real example sentence, so you can see how people actually use them. At the end you'll find activities to check what you remember.

Take it with you, look things up on the go and don't worry about mistakes. Trying is what turns a holiday into a conversation.

How to use it

1. Read the word, then the sentence. Words stick better when you see them in action.
2. Say it out loud. Even quietly on the bus, your mouth needs the practice.
3. Spot the words on your trip: signs, menus, tickets and announcements are full of them.
4. Try the activities without looking back, then check the answers.

Two countries, two words

Spanish is spoken in more than 20 countries and travel words change a lot from place to place. When you see two options, the first is common in Spain 🇪🇸 and the second in Argentina 🇦🇷. Both are correct.

la maleta 🇪🇸 = la valija 🇦🇷

El or la?

Every Spanish noun is masculine (el) or feminine (la). Learn the little word together with the noun: el billete, la playa, el mapa. Yes, el mapa is masculine even though it ends in -a!
